(1) Charles Percy, born in England or Ireland, was married three times. First in the British Isles to Margaret, (maiden name unknown) about 1761. She was born in 1745 and died October 18th, 1785. Two children by this marriage: Robert (2) and Sarah (2). Sarah died in London, England in 1780 aged thirteen. Margaret Percy and her daughter, Sarah, are buried in London (see register of deaths of the Parish of St. Giles in London). He married the second time in Bermuda. No descendants. In 1776, with Dr. Robert Dow of Scotland, he left the Island of Saint Eustatia (Dutch West Indies) and came to this country and settled in what is now Wilkinson County, Mississippi, near Fort Adams. He married the third time Susanna Collins and they had the following children: Sarah (2), Susanna (2), Thomas George (2), Catherine (2), Luke (2) and William (2). Luke and William died in childhood. He acquired quite a fortune in lands and slaves. Was an Alcalde under the Spanish Government. He died January 31st, 1794 on his plantation, "Northumberland House", by drowning in a stream now known as Percy Creek. His wife, Susanna, died on the same plantation in 1803. If he was ever connected with the British Army or Navy, I have found no evidence of it.
A record in Woodville, Mississippi, dated June 7th, 1808, shows that the estate of Charles and Susanna Percy, was divided among their four children, Mrs. Sarah Ellis, Thomas G., Catharine and Ann Percy. Charles Percy's eldest son, Lieutenant Robert Percy by his first wife, Margaret, of England, had been previously settled with in 1795. Dr. Robert Dow for at least fifty years was a leading physician of New Orleans, Louisiana and a very close friend of Lieut. Robert Percy.
